Course Description/Objectives:

In seventh grade English class students develop reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills in order to become more effective communicators. They read a variety of texts, including short stories, poetry, novels, and non-fiction. As they write informative, narrative, and persuasive pieces, they refine their abilities to use language and develop personal writing styles. Students also produce multi-media projects which integrate research, writing, and technology skills. Finally, they develop speaking and listening skills by participating in small and large group discussions, by presenting work to the class, and by listening and responding to various types of media.

UNDERSTANDINGS

Language is the primary way that individuals communicate thoughts and feelings. In order to communicate effectively in spoken and written language it is critical to understand and apply grammar. Formal academic communication requires correct usage and grammar.

COMMON ASSESSMENTS/CULMINATING ACTIVITY

Formative assessment occurs throughout the year in writing and literature lessons.

Published pieces of writing are assessed for style and conventions.

KNOW

- Define and describe the functions of adverbs, conjunctions, and modifiers.
- Identify the subject and predicate in a sentence.
- Define phrase and clause.
- Identify the function of a semi-colon.
- Recognize the function of a comma.
- Define synonym and antonym.
- Explain how affixes impact word meaning.
- Describe how context clues can be used to determine meaning.
- Explain how an author's usage of a word determines meaning.
- Identify dictionaries, glossaries, and thesauruses as resources for vocabulary development and enrichment.
- Identify common Greek and Latin roots and affixes.

- Explain the function of phrases and clauses in general and their function in specific sentences.
- Place phrases and clauses within a sentence, recognizing and correcting misplaced and dangling modifiers.
- Choose among simple, compound, complex, and compound-complex sentences to signal differing relationships.
- Use a comma to separate coordinate adjectives (e.g., It was a fascinating, enjoyable movie but not He wore an old[,] green shirt).
- Use quotation marks to punctuate dialogue.
- Edit written work to eliminate run-on sentences and fragments.
- Use a grade level editing checklist while proofreading written work.
- Revise work to eliminate wordiness and redundancy.
- Read, view, and listen to a variety of texts to acquire new vocabulary.
- Use context clues to determine the meaning of unfamiliar vocabulary.
- Consult print and digital reference materials to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its meaning or its part of speech.
- Analyze the connotations of words with similar definitions.

Language and Grammar Scope and Sequence

Grades 6-12

Language is dynamic; it changes to reflect society and culture, and it provides the primary way that individuals communicate thoughts and feelings. Effective written and oral communications rely upon understanding and applying the rules of standard English. This thoughtful knowledge of language and the skillful application of conventions and craft enhance expression and aid comprehension.

Teaching grammar and language concepts and conventions requires a multi-faceted approach.

- Some direct instruction is useful to define a concept, to show how it functions, and to explain its importance.
- Mentor texts (authentic models) may be used to demonstrate how constructions and conventions work.
- Student writing assignments should allow students to explore, practice, and refine concepts in their own writing.
- Editing checklists and rubrics should be designed to help students focus their work, understand expectations, and be held accountable.

In the tables that follow, grammar and language concepts and skills taught in grades 6 through 12 are identified. Instruction follows the sequence: instruct, build, strengthen, and maintain. Instruct indicates the first year a skill or concept is taught. Build indicates that additional instruction or re-teaching is expected. Strengthen indicates brief refreshers may be required, but students will use editing checklists and rubrics to assess their writing. Maintain indicates that the concept or skill will be demonstrated routinely in writing and speaking.

Adaptations/Modifications for Students with I.E.P.s

Adaptations or modifications to this planned course will allow exceptional students to earn credits toward graduation or develop skills necessary to make a transition from the school environment to community life and employment. The I.E.P. team has determined that modifications to this planned course will meet the student's I.E.P. needs.

Adaptations/Modifications may include but are not limited to:

INSTRUCTION CONTENT

- Modification of instructional content and/or instructional approaches
- Modification or deletion of some of the essential elements

SETTING

Preferential seating

METHODS

- Additional clarification of content
- Occasional need for one to one instruction
- Minor adjustments or pacing according to the student's rate of mastery
- Written work is difficult, use verbal/oral approaches
- Modifications of assignments/testing
- Reasonable extensions of time for task/project completion
- Assignment sheet/notebook
- Modified/adjusted mastery rates
- Modified/adjusted grading criteria
- Retesting opportunities

MATERIALS

- Supplemental texts and materials
- Large print materials for visually impaired students
- Outlines and/or study sheets
- Carbonless notebook paper
- Manipulative learning materials
- Alternatives to writing (tape recorder/calculator)
